Hills' Bakery Burned.

At 1:40 yesterday afternoon the fire alarm was sounded and a glance showed huge volumes of smoke pouring from the roof and sides of the bakery, owned by
S. W. Hills, on 9th street just off from Main. The department responded in quick time, hose company No. 1 being the first to get water onto the burning building. The fire swept through the building as if it was made of tinder and before anything could be done to stay the flames it was enveloped in millions of fire-forked tongues which lapped the same structure up in almost less time than it takes to tell it. The department worked bravely and the water company for a wonder had an excellent head of steam at the pump house by the aid of which the building in the rear and the one directly in front of it were saved. Almost every thing in the bakery was burned. Mr. Hills having left only a few moments before and Fritz, the baker, had just stepped into Foster's store, so no one was in the building.
The blaze must have originated from the oven as that is the only way it can be accounted for.

Mr. Hills informed a DISPATCH scrible that he had $800 insurance on the premises, $400 of it being on the building, $100 on the stock and the balance on the oven and barn, and his loss will be $1,000 besides this.

The oven was built three years ago by Mr. Hills at an expense of $700 and was a good one. The fire at this time will interfere materially with his business as will necessitate quite a little delay before he can get started again. He will rebuild on the old site and the new building will probably be much better than the one destroyed.

John Murray lost a valuable gold watch chain in his zeal to save the wood pile.

John Orth got a large burning cinder on his neck and the way he tore off his celuloid collar was fun to see. His neck was badly blistered.

The goods in the house just north of the bakery, occupied by A. G. Mitchell, were all removed in a hurried manner, although nothing was broken.

In their anxiety to get a stream on the hose was not securely coupled and it came apart. Those standing near were treated to a shower bath.

A part of Mr. Hills' household goods were removed but the house did not catch fire. In removing the cookstove the gentleman having hold of the front end let it drop and smashed it. John
his feet.

Not a New Thing.

A Notable Wedding.

The wedding of James Smith and Miss
Anna McCarthy at the Catholic church
Wednesday morning by the Rev. Father Watry was one of the occasions that will long be remembered. Mr. Smith is one of the most popular conductors of the Northern Pacific, the bride being a young lady of high standing and a general favorite among her friends.
The event took place at 9 o'clock amidst a large audience which assembled at the church edifice to witness the ceremony.
The church was profusely decorated with evergreens and potted plants, a large arch with a bell suspended from it being erected in front of the altar and was uniquely constructed. The bridal party was conveyed to the church in close carriages, and as they ascended the carpeted steps and entered the edifice all eyes were turned toward them. The bride was tastefully dressed in a cream satin and orange blossoms. After the ceremony was over the party was driven to the residence of the bride's parents at the corner of Fifth and Forsyth street and at which place a reception was given in the evening to the friends of the contracting parties. An elegant wedding supper was served and a very pleasant time enjoyed, nothing occurring to mar the pleasure of the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on the morning train for a trip east and will be absent a month or six weeks visiting Ypsilanti, Michigan, and other places of interest after which they will return to Brainerd which will be their future residence.

Their friends remembered them in a very substantial manner as will be seen by the following list of presents:

Wm. Smith, of Chicago, Ill., a brother of the groom, tea set and carving knife and fork.

Fred Puhler is in the newspaper business again, this time at Fertile, in Polk county, on the D. & M. road.

The News appears to be very much excited at the mention of Mr. Kindred's name in any other newspaper—too much so, possibly, for its own good.

In cities of any great pretensions signs that project across the sidewalk are prohibited by the city authorities. Brainerd has not yet reached that point.

The best sign a dealer or business man can have is an advertisement in a newspaper. There is no better way to inform the public of what you have to sell, and where you can be found.

The prisoner was notified unofficially by his attorneys yesterday, and was very much dejected, saying that his trial was a farce. The date of execution was fixed July 12.

Work on the Leech Lake branch of the Manitoba R. R. has been commenced in earnest. Camps are in course of erection at McIntosh P. O., and Matie's and grading will commence early next week. The contractors are buying large bills of lumber from the yards here and other building materials. Men and teams are constantly arriving and work all along the line will soon be under full headway and with the advent of the railroad Fosston will enter upon an era of great prosperity.—Fosston Ex.

Little Falls is to hold a special election in a few days to determine whether it shall issue bonds for the improvement of the Water Power at that point. In the issue the adjoining towns of Pike Creek and Belle Prairie are to join. It is proposed by the Little Falls Water Power company to expend $200,000 in the construction of a dam, canals, gates, all of stone, iron and wood, and Mr. Shanks the engineer of a syndicate of Louisville capitalists who are to undertake the improvement is already on the ground.

The Ball is Open.

The Congressional campaign has opened at Brainerd. It is kindred or anti-kindred.—Fergus Journal.

Who is Shively?

WASHINGTON, Special Telegram, June 20.—J. W. Shively telegraphed to Secretary Lamar from Bismarck, Dak., detailing his alleged experiences in the Yellowstone National Park a few days ago and warning the secretary that a lot of robbers, cut throats and thieves are engaged in slaughtering the Rocky mountain sheep in the park by knocking them down with clubs while they are stuck in the deep snow. Shively gives his address as Brainerd, Minn.

Will Make It Permanent.

Mississippi Valley Lumberman:

It copious rains should favor the Mississippi and Hann River boom company and enable them to bring in the logs from Brainerd without a great deal of labor on the part of the log owners will be unkind enough to begrudge the company the 15 cents per thousand it proposes to charge for making the drive.

Taken as a class, the lumbermen would be glad to see the boom company make enough to encourage them to extend the limits permanently to Brainerd and proceed to make the improvements necessary to facilitate the work in succeeding seasons. There is little doubt that had the boom company been master of the situation a month or so ago, that the mills, despite low water, would have been running a month or two weeks earlier than they will be now. The company has lately shown a commendable position to do the fair and best thing for the log owners, and the directors of the company will stop short of popular demand if they do not make the extension of the limits permanent.

The Land of Plenty.

This has been found on the wall of a deserted shanty in the heart of Dakota: "Fore miles from a naber; sixteen miles from a post-office; twenty-five miles from a railroad; a hundred and atey from timber; half a mile from water; God bless our home. We're gone east to git a fresh start."

The Excursion to Perham.

Last Saturday morning one of the happiest excursions parties it has ever been our lot to see, assembled at the depot in this city to take the train for Perham on the occasion of the N. P. employees' excursion, there being in the neighborhood of 1600 or 1800 men, women and children in the party. The engine was gorgeously decorated and was handled by Engineer Willis, while Jas. Smith (who was then a bachelor but is now a benedict) had charge of the train, and it was a train of no small pretensions for a quired eighteen cars to carry the people and their lunch baskets. At 6:30 the train pulled slowly out of the station stopping at the Sanitarium to take on a few passengers and then started on her journey, with the load of human souls bound for a "day out." At Motley and Wadena the train stopped long enough for the celebrated Brainerd band to regale the inhabitants with a few sweet strains of music. Perham was reached at 10 o'clock without a mishap. The whole town turned out to meet the excursionists and the entire country for miles around furnished teams to carry the visitors to the lake, a mile and a quarter away. The picnic grounds were reached in good time and a very pleasant place it was a beautiful sheet of water surrounded by wooded knolls and pleasing scenery. The grounds were beautified by a commodious boat house neatly painted, swings, walks, dancing pavilion, etc. The crowd enjoyed themselves as they never did before, and when they turned their footsteps trainward at 4 o'clock they all were of the same opinion—that the excursion to Perham was one of the red-letter events of their lives. The homeward trip was fully as successful and at 9:30 the train pulled into the station. The railroad company and the gentlemen who completed the arrangements and did the work necessary to get everything in shape deserve much credit for their courtesy and usefulness. Each succeeding excursion seems to outdo the other in pleasure and we hope to be able to accompany the railroad boys on their fourth annual which will occur in 1888.

Grasshopper Ravages.

In reply to a communication from J. K. Moore, the governor's secretary, Deputy Sheriff S. Butler, of Perham, Otter Tail county, writes that the grasshoppers are very thick in his vicinity, and after careful observation and upon reliable authority he is able to state that about 5000 acres of grain and garden crops have been destroyed already, within a radius of four miles around Perham. He explains that the grasshoppers are able to fly, but do not, and that the farmers are crippled somewhat on account of their ravages.

A Tramp's Pocket book.

A tramp in full bloom followed his fiery nose into a cheap Bowery restaurant the other day and contentedly sat down to eat and leisurely perused the bill of fare. His face did not inspire confidence and his clothes would have shocked the feelings of a Baxter street puller-in. The bull-necked waiter who yells "steak" when one calls for "steak" and "beer" when one asks for "beer" looked on the tramp with suspicion, the timid cashier buried himself behind a newspaper so as not to see the coming stranger, while the proprietor frowned and stepped quickly toward the king of the highway.

The tramp, with an alcoholic sin-bag of happiness as he pulled out a fat pocketbook apparently stuffed with greenbacks. All was serene, and the tramp calmly pursued the even tenor of his course through $1 worth of steak, potatoes, coffee, pie, cake and beer. Then he lighted a big cigar and strolled up to the cashier's desk with his pocketbook in hand. The check was for $1, and the tramp fumbled his bills as if a $1 bill were a hard thing to find among the many fives and tens he had. He looked up at the cashier and then looking up at the cashier asked:

"Did you ever eat?"

"No," replied the cashier, as he stretched out a desirous right hand.

Well, then," chirruped the tramp, "I'm hungry. I've got $1 advertisement bill on the counter and made for the door, 'you can at least give an imitation of the man who thinks he's got $1 out of me.'"—New York Tribune.

Language of Noses.

The Roman nose denotes a propensity for adventure.

A wide nose with open nostrils is a mark of great sensuality.

A cleft nose denotes benevolence.

A nose of St. Vincent de Paul was the nose of St. Vincent de Paul.

A straight nose denotes a just, serious, firm, judicious and energetic mind.

Nazography is the science of divining the character, habits and inclinations of people by a simple inspection of their noses.

The curved, fleshy nose is a mark of domination and cruelty. Catherine de Medici and Elizabeth of England had noses of this kind.

The curved, thin nose is a mark of a brilliant mind, but vain and dissipated to the point of being the nose of a dreamer, a poet, or a critic.

It is desirable that the nose should be as long as possible, being a sign of merit, power and genius. For instance, Napoleon and Caesar had long noses.

If the nose be re-entrant—that is, if the nose be turned up—it denotes that its owner has a weak mind, sometimes coarse, and generally playful, pleasant, or frolicsome.

Sunday Base Ball.

Oil City Derrick. Rev. Dr. Woodstock, popularly known as "The Deacon," in his sermon on the creek last Sunday made a few remarks pertinent to base ball. Pointing out of the window at a game in progress adjoining Wilson's, he said: "See that loafer with the bird cage on his head, standing like a straddle-bug behind the bat. He is not desecrating the Sabbath day by playing ball, because he isn't playing ball. He can't play. He imagines he can, of course, and he goes through all the painful process of a rear ball player; but in the devil's score book he is charged ten times over for every error, and a nice record he will have when the season is over and the time for eternal rest should be at hand. It will be a sorry eternal rest for him."

Just then some one made a long hit, and a shout went up from the crowd.

"Yes, hoopa!" yelled the deacon, raising his voice above the din, "hoopa! till the cows come home, but unless you raise your voices in hosannas to the Lord, you will never reach the shining home-plate of everlasting life. That was a long hit to centre and I give his nibs there credit for taking it in, but the devil will have him in just as slick on the last inning of all. You may send in your curved balls, and smash the leather in the nose to the right or to the left field; you may steal from bag to bag and slide in home on your pantaloons, but you will finally get a goose egg in the kingdom come. Aye, pound on the peevy gates with your base ball bat, but if there is a shadow of a Sunday game on it, down to the eternal roast you go. Saint Peter careth not whether you belong to Snapdragons or the Whangdoodles, if you swing your festive willow and pound the bags on Sunday, salt-strip the other's pleasure, and chase the ball, aye, leg it till your ungody heels beat a tattoo on your coat-tails, but my word for it, the devil will never get away from your elbow. Old Olee is a base runner and a ball chaser himself, and he'll stay with you until his own dominion freezes over and have to be abandoned for an ice pond." The deacon made a few more remarks, exhorting his hearers to shun the seductive ball field and the front porch on Sunday, and announced services next Sabbath morning and evening at the red schoolhouse in Sugar Creek.

Hills' Bakery Burned.
At 1:40 yesterday afternoon the fire
alarm was sounded and a glance showed
huge volumes of smoke pouring from the
roof and sides of the bakery, owned by
S. W. Hills, on 9th street just off from Main. The department responded in quick time. Those Company No. 1, being the first to get water onto the burning
building. The fire swept through the
before anything could be done to stay
of firey forked tongues which lapped the fire structure up in almost less time than it takes to tell it. The de-
show in the pump house by the aid of which the building in the rear and the one directly in front of it were saved.
Almost every thing in the bakery was burned. Mr. Hills having left only a few moments before and Fritz, the
store, so no one was in the building.
The blaze must have originated from the
accounted for.

Mr. Hills informed a DISPATCH scribe that he had $800 insurance on the building, $100 on the stock and the balance
on the oven and barn, and his loss will
be $1,000 besides this.

The oven was built three years ago by
Mr. Hills at an expense of $700 and was a good one. The fire at this time will interfere materially with his business as it will necessitate quite a little delay before
build on the old site and the new building will probably be much better than the one destroyed.

John Murray lost a valuable gold
pile.

celluloid collar was fun to see. His neck was badly blistered.

The goods in the house just north of
the bakery, occupied by A. G. Mitchell,
were all removed in a hurried manner,
although nothing was broken.

In their anxiety to get a stream on the hose was not securely coupled and it came apart. Those standing near were treated to a shower bath.

A part of Mr. Hills' household goods
were removed but the house did not
catch fire. In removing the cookstove the chimney having bolt of the front and let it drop and smashed it. John
his feet.

they move.

The editor returns thanks to Robert Archibald, of Deerwood, for a nice basket of luscious strawberries. The berries were of the "Triumph" variety and are well named. They were the would weight a pound."

Any of our people who intend to enjoy

Train No. 1 from St. Paul last night created quite a stir among the railroad men when she pulled in at the station, at least the engine that pulled her was an object of curiosity. The engine is of the Lehigh Valley road and is the only one of its kind in the state.

This monster engine has six drive wheels and double extension boilers.
She was of the consolidated class, and marked "Duplex" on the cab, being the largest engine ever run on the road.

The passenger department of the Northern Pacific have inaugurated a series of cheap excursions from Brainerd and stations between Brainerd and New York Mills, to Perham and return, at a round trip of about one cent per mile. J. A. White, ticket agent at this station, will sell tickets, on Saturdays, to Perham and return for $1.45. These tickets will require the signature of the purchaser, and will be good for return not later than the Monday following, and then only when signed by the original purchaser and stamped by agent at Perham.

Two good boys with a gallon garden sprinkler could do more effective work at a fire than the present system of water works unless something is done so that pressure can be had when needed. At the Koop fire Wednesday morning the hose nozzle had to be turned down in order to get water at all. The fire department always respond and are on deck to do their duty and are almost always disgusted on account of "no pressure."

Among the wounded at Grand Forks during the recent wind storm was Mrs.
Bissel and two children, sister of H. A.
Hatch, of Ft. Ripley. Mr. Hatch went up on Friday night's train as soon as he heard of the accident.

The Pioneer Press says: Mrs. L. D.
Bissel and two children, who had such a miraculous escape during the Grand Forks cyclone, arrived in St. Paul yesterday. Mrs. Bissel was found lying in the storm prostrate in the street with a sewing machine and heavy timbers lying across her. The house and the furniture were hold furniture was completely destroyed.
Mr. Bissel estimates his loss at over $2, 000.

Another victim for St. Peter left here on Wednesday evening. Henry Duak, who has been employed by the Northern Pacific company at Tamarac for the last two years, was brought to Aitkin on Sunday last. The company on Sunday passed an examination on him last Wednesday and found him to be insane.
Since he was taken to the hospital he down with rheumatism and was sent to the Northern Pacific Sanitarium at Brainerd, having been in the employ of the company at that time. Since he left the Sanitarium he has not been able to resume work. Duak is a Swede, and is about 35 years of age. He was found on Wednesday evening's train with Duak in charge, for St. Peter.--Aitkin Age.

An Elegant Present.
Frank Farrell and Charles E. Sherwood, of Brainerd, were in the city yesterday with a very handsome alarm, elegant watch and chain, which was a gift from Silver City, which is to be presented to George W. Cushing, late general superintendent of machinery rolling stock on road of steam at Pacific road, who lately gone to assume a similar position on

The Wiley-Deane Wedding.
Mr. C. H. Wiley and bride arrived in this city from Vermont on Monday after a pleasant wedding journey.

The Vermont Tribune contains the following notice of the wedding: Wednesday evening, at 6 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. J. F. Deane, the marriage of Miss Kate H. Deane and Charles H. Wiley, of Brainerd, Minnesota, was solemnized by Rev. F. Brown clergyman. About 35 people were invited to the wedding, of whom about 25 were present and the affair passed off very pleasantly. The presents to the bride were very numerous and costly, while the grave ceremony of the high esteem in which she was held by all her friends and acquaintances. She was well known in Cavendish and employed as teacher in the primary schools, and had gained the reputation of being one of the best primary teachers in this county. She will be greatly missed in her home, in the church (of which she was a member), and in the large circle of her friends.
Mr. Wiley is a "Cavendish boy," and well remembered as the general clerk in the store of Robbins & White, of Cavendish, Vt. He was with them for several years, and was well and favorably known in this vicinity. He went to Minnesota seven years ago, to seek his fortune, where by close attention to business in a speculative way he has required enough of this world's goods to insure comfort and all the necessities of life for himself and wife. The wedding was a quite affairs, the display of gifts being a feature of the occasion will ever be remembered by all who witnessed it. The happy pair started for their Western home on the train, being accompanied by a number of their friends.

A Notable Wedding.

The wedding of James Smith and Miss
Anna McCarthy at the Catholic church
Wednesday morning by the Rev. Father
one of the most popular conductors of
the Northern Pacific, the bride being
a young lady of high standing and a general favorite among her friends.

a large audience which assembled at the
church edifice to witness the ceremony.
The church was profusely decorated with evergreens and pond lilies, a large arch
constructed. The bride party was conveyed to the church in close carriages,
orange blossoms. After the ceremony was over the party was driven to the residence of the bride's parents at the
the evening to the friends of the contracting parties. An elegant wedding
time enjoyed, nothing occurring to mar
month or six weeks visiting Ypsilanti,
Michigan, and other places of interest,
after which they will return to Brainerd where they will make their future residence.

Their friends remembered them in a
very substantial manner as will be seen
by the following list of presents:
Wm. Smith, of Chicago, Ill., a brother of
